CAREER SUMMARY

Dedicated front-end developer with a strong foundation in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and popular frameworks like Tailwind and Bootstrap, acquired through self-study to create visually engaging and user-friendly websites. I am excited to expand my expertise into full-stack development. So, I am actively pursuing back-end technologies and database management to become a well-rounded developer. I am committed to continuous learning, adaptability, and maintaining a strong work ethic and ready to embrace new challenges in both front-end and back-end development.
